

Terms of use

The terms on which you may use the Simsen Diagnostics website. Our products and services are provided for research use only.

Last updated 11 June 2026

1 Introduction and acceptance

These terms of use govern your access to and use of the website at simsendiagnostics.com (the "website"), operated by Simsen Diagnostics AB ("Simsen", "we", "us" or "our"). By accessing or using the website, you agree to these terms. If you do not agree, please do not use the website.

These terms govern use of the website only. The supply of our products and services is governed by the separate written agreement entered into between Simsen and the relevant customer; if there is any conflict, that agreement prevails for the products and services it covers.

2 About us

Simsen Diagnostics AB is a company registered in Sweden (company registration number 559238-5206), with its registered address at Pepparedsleden 1, AZ BioVentureHub, 431 83 Mölndal, Sweden. You can contact us at inbox@simsendiagnostics.com.

3 Research Use Only (RUO)

Simsen provides its assays, analyses, panels, reports and related services on a Research Use Only (RUO) basis. They are intended for research applications only. They are not validated, intended or to be used for diagnostic procedures, clinical decision-making, patient management, screening, or any other medical purpose.

Simsen does not currently hold ISO 15189 accreditation, and our services are not provided as accredited or clinical laboratory services. Any data or results we provide must not be used as a basis for diagnosis, prognosis or treatment. Responsibility for the use of, and any conclusions drawn from, our products, data and results rests with the customer, who is responsible for determining their suitability for the customer's intended research purpose.

4 No medical advice

The website and its content are provided for general information about our technology, services and research. Nothing on the website constitutes medical, clinical, diagnostic, legal or other professional advice, and no doctor-patient or other professional relationship is created by your use of the website.

If you are a patient or a research participant, please direct any questions to your healthcare provider or the relevant research organisation. For how we handle personal data, see our privacy policy.

5 Use of the website

You may use the website for lawful purposes only. In particular, you agree not to:

- use the website in any way that breaches applicable law or regulation, or is fraudulent or harmful;
- attempt to gain unauthorised access to the website, the server on which it is stored, or any connected server, computer or database;
- introduce viruses, malware or other material that is malicious or technologically harmful; or
- copy, scrape, data-mine or systematically extract content from the website except as permitted under “Intellectual property” below.

6 Intellectual property

All content on the website, including text, graphics, logos, images, data, diagrams, layout and software, is owned by or licensed to Simsen Diagnostics and is protected by copyright, trademark and other intellectual property laws. “Simsen”, the Simsen logo and related names and marks are trademarks of Simsen Diagnostics AB.

You may view the website and download or print extracts for your own internal, non-commercial reference, provided you do not modify the content and you keep all copyright and proprietary notices intact. You may not otherwise reproduce, republish, distribute or commercially exploit any content without our prior written permission.

7 Third-party links and content

The website may contain links to third-party websites and references to third-party publications and resources. We provide these for convenience and information only. We do not control, endorse or accept responsibility for the content, products or services of any third party, and access is at your own risk.

8 Accuracy of information and no warranties

We take care to keep the website accurate and up to date, including its scientific and research content. However, the website and its content are provided on an “as is” and “as available” basis, without warranties of any kind, whether express or implied.

We do not warrant that the website will be uninterrupted, secure or error-free, that defects will be corrected, or that any information on the website is complete, current or fit for any particular purpose. Scientific and research content reflects our understanding at the time of publication and may change.

9 Limitation of liability

To the fullest extent permitted by law, Simsen Diagnostics shall not be liable for any indirect, incidental, special or consequential loss, or for any loss of profit, revenue, data or goodwill, arising out of or in connection with your use of, or inability to use, the website or any reliance on its content, or arising from any use of our Research Use Only products, data or results contrary to these terms or the applicable customer agreement.

Nothing in these terms excludes or limits our liability where it would be unlawful to do so, including liability for death or personal injury caused by negligence, or for fraud.

10 Changes to these terms

We may update these terms of use from time to time to reflect changes to our website, services or legal requirements. The current version is always available on the website. Your continued use of the website after any change constitutes acceptance of the revised terms.

11 Governing law and contact

These terms of use, and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with them or their subject matter, are governed by the laws of Sweden, and are subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Swedish courts.

If you have any questions about these terms, please contact us at inbox@simsendiagnosics.com or by post at Pepparedsleden 1, AZ BioVentureHub, 431 83 Mölndal, Sweden.
